

HARSH PURANAM

It all started off with a DREAM From my childhood, was into designing graphics, sketching cartoons, creating innovative games using Flash player and that driven me into oblivion of conjectural hypnosis towards creativity.

ENGINEERING DAYS

Days went by holding instruments to measure the fields, heights and bricks of constructional works, which drove me to understand the art in structure and development of buildings. I have got into auto-cad and strike my luck in being placed as "The Civil Engineer" after my graduation at Reliance Industries.

My work drove me to become Team Leader in span of 1 year down the journey, that says, "I'm skillful, focused, disciplined & work oriented person who got great team skills."

Meanwhile, my passion for designing has uplifted 1000 fold when my creative mind fetched the eyes of my senior management at office.

As a hobby, was working on some projects and then...

my career as a FREELANCER started off

I started helping my friend's & cousin's clients in some design works & that gave me a very good reputation in Digital Marketing world.

I learnt the trading tricks in the business, started getting more clients within span of few months of my start.

When seeing a hero to becoming ONE

Local clients love me, my work and my love for their company. That says it all! I drive my designs, Digital Marketing strategies that separates me from the herd of so called SEO experts! Yes, I believe in making my client and their customers feel amazing about what they see as a BRAND.

When I learnt to ~~Speak~~ (UNDERSTAND) National Languages

My Reputation grew to many other counter parts in our business, I started getting National recognition for my works. More than 300+ happy customers joined my club of an "amazing creative journey."

not anymore a SINGLE MAN SHOOOOOW!

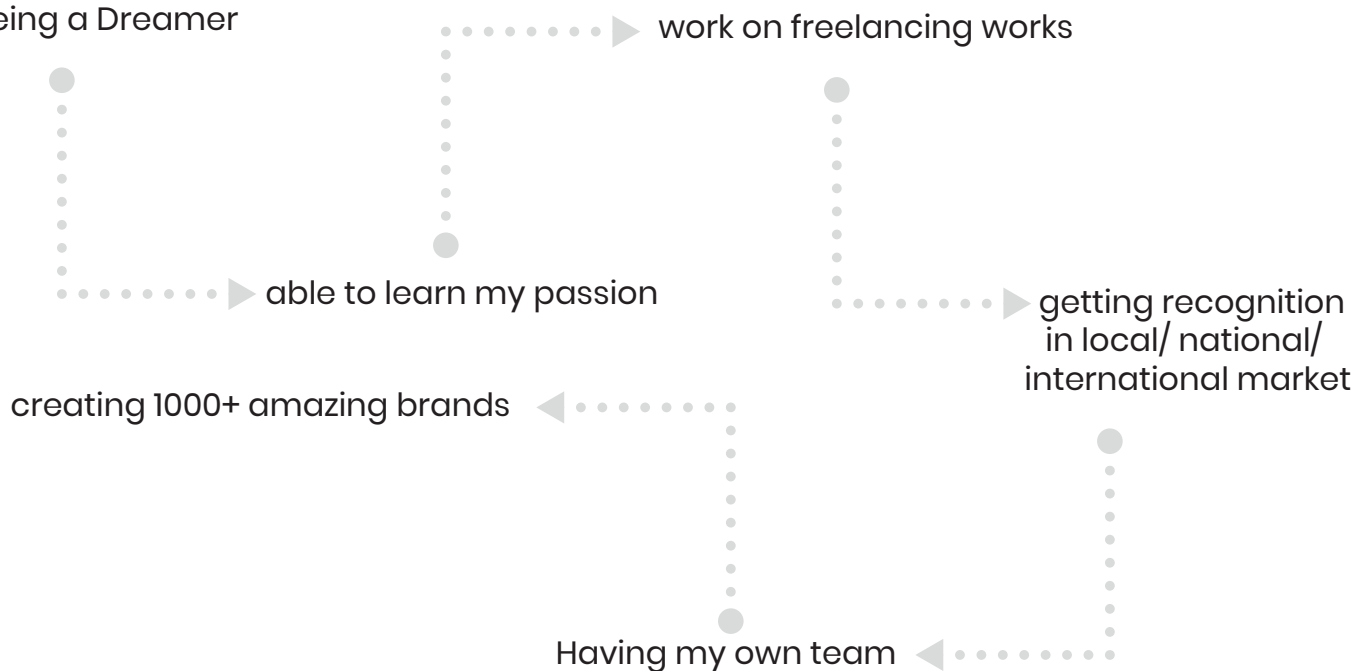

As reputation precedes my power to handle huge projects, I got myself an amazing, crazy, innovative, fun, creative and bad ass team to work along with me.

it is now INTER-national too

This feat of mine, landed me with International clients! not one, not 2 but more than 15 clients per month coming from all around the globe for their Digital Solutions.

Here is my START

From being a Dreamer

Not anymore a Designer, or a Freelancer, but also into UI/UX, Digital Marketing, SEO Expert, Public Relations Management Professional and lot more.

That's my sweet & sweat journey to this date.

All I learn from my experience is, "Never give up on our dreams, and make sure we wake up to keep them alive."
